Mr Matthew MINGEY (Instructor, ARCH Academy)

Matthew MingeY graduated magna cum laude from the University of Pennsylvania with a degree in International Relations and a minor in Philosophy. Matt was a leader in the International Affairs Association (Model UN) and a captain on the Mock Trial team. Drawing on eight years' debate and public speaking experience, he trained new competitors and mentored younger students as part of Penn Mock Trial's Make-a-Friend initiative. When not traveling the United States for competition, he worked for several legal organizations in Philadelphia, including the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office.

Matt specializes in research skills, issue analysis, and argumentation, and encourages all of his students to see the world from multiple perspectives. He is an advocate of debate and simulation-driven learning, having participated in and designed a number of peacekeeping, historical, and political crisis scenarios.

Matt attended McDowell High School in Pennsylvania, where he was President of McDowell's award-winning speech and debate team. He studied in Beijing, and speaks Mandarin Chinese.
